PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A little house, perfect in every way. In a quaint village of All American Stockbridge Massachusetts, this house is a mile from Norman Rockwell Museum and Berkshire Botanical Gardens. Just a few short, convenient minutes to Tanglewood and two miles from the famed Red Lion Inn. New windows, newer roof, wide plank wood and ceramic tile floors, Cathedral ceilings and exposed brick and beams - many beautiful touches - a glass enclosed fantasy room that can be used as a second bedroom, a breakfast nook, home office or a studio with windows from floor to ceiling with bright, natural light. Birds singing at every window. A Vermont Casting gas stove warms the entire house in no time - and the house has been through a state energy audit to ensure it's efficiency. There is a nice sized shed, complete with full wiring for another studio, abundant storage - or a fabulous guest suite by permit. State of the art alarm system installed. The landscaping is enviable - with seasonal gardens, fruit trees and bushes, a rolling green lawn and plenty of wooded privacy to the back of the house. A neighborhood filled with interesting and artistic people - you can find a friend when you need one yet savor the country quietude whenever you choose. A picture perfect kind of house w/ room for expansion to the North. House is ready to be hooked up to town sewer in the spring (at the buyers expense - estimates available) - a nice way to instantly increase your property value. This property would also be a highly desirable seasonal rental. Broker owned.
